3 Reading Comprehension

A: Read the following paragraph and write a concluding sentences.

Kuwait has a rich and interesting history. In the past, many people worked in the pearl industry. Divers spent many hours in the sea, collecting valuable pearls. Kuwait was also a busy trading centre. Traders exchanged goods such as dates, spices, and cloth with countries around the Arabian Gulf. This trade helped the country grow and connect with others in the region. Later, the discovery of oil changed Kuwait's future. Oil brought wealth and helped improve education, transport, and healthcare. Today, Kuwait is a modern country that continues to celebrate its traditions. People are proud of their past and continue to share stories about their culture and family history. -----

B: Identify the following from the paragraph.

- Topic sentence: -----
- A supporting detail: -----

4 Looking Back, Moving Forward

- What is one thing I learned this week that I am proud of?

- Did I find the text easy to understand?

3 Reading Comprehension

A: Read the following passage then answer the questions that follow.

Last weekend, Omar and his family decided to go on a trip to the mountains to escape the busy life of the city. They wanted to relax, breathe fresh air, and enjoy the beauty of nature.

Early in the morning, they carefully packed everything they might need: sandwiches, plenty of water, warm jackets, and a camera to capture special moments. The mountains were high, and some parts were steep and challenging, but the amazing views made the hard work worth it.

When they finally reached the highest point, they rested and had a picnic while enjoying the breathtaking view. Omar felt very proud because he had completed his first mountain hike. He said it was one of the most unforgettable experiences of his life.

1. The writer's main purpose is to:

- | | |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| a. describe a difficult trip | b. explain how to pack for a trip |
| c. share a personal experience | d. give advice about camping |

2. The pronoun "it" refers to:

3 Reading Comprehension

Read the following paragraph then answer the questions that follow.

Many teenagers enjoy playing video games in their free time. These games can be fun and exciting, and they often help players improve their thinking and problem-solving skills. However, playing for too many hours can lead to health problems like tired eyes or lack of sleep. For example, some teens stay up late just to finish a level. Video games can also affect school performance because students may spend less time studying. Finally, it is important for teenagers to balance their time between gaming, schoolwork, and physical activity to stay healthy and successful in life.

1. What is the best title for the passage?

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| a- How to Choose the Best Video Game | b- How Video Games Affect Teenagers |
| c- The History of Video Games | d- Tips for Winning Video Games |

2. How can video games be helpful for teenagers?

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| a- They help improve their thinking. | b- They lead to health problems. |
| c- They Make them stay up late. | d- They affect school performance. |
